BIBLIOGRAPHY

This Bibliography is in four parts. Part I consists of items numbered 1 through 165 and which relate to Baltimore County records found either at the Hall of Records in Annapolis or at the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore. Part II contains items numbered 200 through 441 which pertain to various records located at either of the two above named repositories and to some basic published sources. Part III lists items numbered 500 through 575 which refer to individual families. Part IV contains items which have not been numbered but which are referred to in the text, either by author's name alone, or by author's name and an abbreviated form of the title.

In some sources, where the data is arranged alphabetically, or where the particular item is already indexed, page numbers have been omitted.

Some numbers have not been assigned. These are designated "Unassigned" in the list of sources.
