

JAMESTOWNE SOCIETY

3901 Midlands Road, Williamsburg, VA 23188-2575

804-353-1226

Info@Jamestowne.org

DONATE

Home

About Us

Membership

Resources

Planned Giving

Contact Us

Shop

Blog

Members Only Pages

Log In | Register

Cart \(0\)

361 YEARS AGO IN 1657

8/2/2018

26 COMMENTS

First in a series of biographical sketches on members of the House of Burgesses whose descendants belong to the First Mississippi Company in honor of the 400th anniversary of the July 30, 1619, meeting of the first

Memorial Church on Jamestown Island

representative governmental body in American at the 1617 Church on Jamestown Island

Captain John Haynie was elected to the Virginia Houses of Burgesses to represent Northumberland County, VA, in 1657. Who was this man?

By 1650, John Haynie was living in Northumberland County, VA, and states in a deposition recorded in 20 August 1655 that he is 31 years of age or thereabouts; it is this court record that establishes his birth year as 1624. His will was recorded at a court held 22 July 1697, but his actual will was destroyed by a fire in 1710. John Haynie transported 34 people from England into the VA Colony; he was a surveyor, a Justice, a planter, a King's Attorney for Northumberland County, a Captain in the Susquehanna War, a vestryman in Wicomico Parish and later a member of St. Stephens Parish in present-day Heathsville, VA.

About 1650, Haynie married Jane Morris, daughter of Nicholas and Martha Morris who were in the VA Colony by 1641. John and Jane Haynie had six children: Richard [married (1) Elizabeth Bridgar (2) Elinor]; Anthony [married Sarah Harris]; John Haynie [married (1) Mary Sadler (2) Jane]; Martha [spouse unknown]; Elizabeth [married Peter Presley]; and Anne [married

TO OUR CONTRIBUTORS

We welcome properly researched contributions of ancestor profiles, vignettes and comments from members that focus on their ancestors' roles in Jamestown's history, plus other aspects of their lives, events and experiences in the colony. PLEASE NOTE that all information must be documented and backed up by primary source documents, and not unverifiable information and family and urban legends. Submissions without this backup may be rejected. Please limit contributions and blog entries solely to the ancestors themselves, and do not include subsequent lineage information. Entries should be no more than 400 words.

NOTE: Contributors are solely responsible for all entries' content.

ARCHIVES

AUGUST 2022

JULY 2022

OCTOBER 2020

SEPTEMBER 2020

Thomas Harding]. Jane and John Haynie also reared Jane Morris, the only child of Jane Morris Haynie's brother Anthony; and Thomas Harding, Jr., orphan of Anne Haynie Harding and Thomas Harding.

According to VA Land Patents recorded in Cavaliers and Pioneers, John Haynie owned about 4750 acres in Northumberland County and was a wealthy planter elected to represent Northumberland in the VA House of Burgesses in 1657. He was also appointed the clerk of the market for Wicomico and set up an ordinary near the courthouse in 1681.

Although clerks for the Northumberland County records spell John Haynie's name as Haney and Haynie, John Haynie was literate; his signature showed that he spelled his name as Haynie.

Tidewater Virginia Families and other books on early Virginia families speculate that Captain John Haynie was probably the son of John and Elizabeth Hayney. John Hayney came to VA from Devon on the Margett and John in 1621; Elizabeth Hanie arrived on the Abigail in 1622. They first lived on Company land in Elizabeth Cittie at Buck Roe, near today's city of Hampton, in a palisaded home with Nicholas Rowe and his wife and two indentured servants. John and Elizabeth are listed in the Muster of Virginia inhabitants in 1624/25. In 1632 John Hayney, planter, lived at Point Comfort Island; in April 1635 in Accomack County; and in June 1635 Charles River County (later York County). By the time he was 41 years of age in 1635 he was living on land on the Poquoson River about 75 miles from the 1650 home of Captain John Haynie in Northumberland County, VA. This county first began to be settled in 1635 by the English merchant class. If Captain John Haynie was the son of John and Elizabeth Hayney, he was born in Virginia at Buck Roe in Elizabeth Cittie.

First Mississippi Company Descendants of Captain John Haynie: Shirley Haynie Godsey; Anna, Lauren, & Harrison Parmer; Alden, Meril, & Emeril John IV Lagasse; Cherry Haynie Lovelace & Caroline Lovelace; Kim Reed;, Lauren Stacey; Leslie Reed-Jones; Susan Burroughs; Mary Flood; Marcia Flood

26 COMMENTS

Robynne Glenn

7/26/2020 08:47:18 am

This is great info on my 9th great grandfather, John Haynie and his family. I am very interested in your sources in the biography. Could you point me in the right direction? Thank you so much for making this available.

Reply

JULY 2020
 JUNE 2020
 APRIL 2020
 MARCH 2020
 NOVEMBER 2019
 OCTOBER 2019
 SEPTEMBER 2019
 AUGUST 2019
 JULY 2019
 JUNE 2019
 MAY 2019
 APRIL 2019
 MARCH 2019
 FEBRUARY 2019
 JANUARY 2019
 DECEMBER 2018
 NOVEMBER 2018
 SEPTEMBER 2018
 AUGUST 2018
 JUNE 2018
 MAY 2018
 APRIL 2018

CATEGORIES

ALL

 RSS FEED

Leigh Eitson

4/17/2023 05:33:17 pm

Mom and I have purchased a book from Higgerston Publishing. Will let you know what we find. Peace,
Leigh

Reply*Sandra Shelton

8/31/2020 02:59:55 pm

I am researching my 3rd great grandfather, Jesse Haynie, as of 1800 in Summer County, TN. In 1807 he married a Nancy Haynie in Northumberland County, VA. Jesse raised a horse named Maria that was never beaten although Andrew Jackson tried! I read that Jesse's great grandfather was John Haynie who also loved race horses.

Reply*John David Haynie

12/11/2020 06:35:41 pm

Trying to find more details on my family's long history, so I can pass that onto my son, John w Haynie.

Reply*Henry Fitzgerald Wells

1/19/2021 05:48:21 pm

Any other members of the Haynie family line please reach out. 415-533-1407, looking to learn more about my relatives. I have some information as well. jhenrywells1@gmail.com

Reply*Cathy Territo

3/21/2021 01:25:38 pm

Henry, reach out anytime and we'll compare notes. I am a direct descendant of John Haynie. Hoping to visit this area this summer to do a little research.

Reply*Patty Haynie Gaede Flener

I am on Ancestry.com

and I am a direct descendent of John C
Haynie - I believe.

8/10/2021 10:06:00 pm

Mark Williams

7/10/2021 12:24:21 am

I've been working on finding more info on the slaves that were owned by James Harvey Dobbins and his wife Elizabeth Brooks Haynie. I located a Sinclair Dobbins. I would like to know any information about the 36 that traveled with John Haynie and if any of them were slaves. Thanks.

Reply*Thomas Haynie

3/13/2021 11:41:48 am

This is great, we have a full family tree that shows our complete direct line all the way back to John & Elizabeth, 1621.

Would love to visit Jamestown to celebrate 400 years in America.

Reply*Patty (Haynie) Flener

12/19/2021 05:41:12 am

I have done suite a bit on ancestry.com
I was born Patsye Evonne Haynie.. and I appear to be related to this line from Capt John Haynie -

Reply*Todd Cralley

5/27/2021 12:25:47 pm

Does anyone have a list of those individuals that John Haynie transported to VA from England? Capt. John Cralle may have been associated with him in mid 1600s.

Reply*Tracy Rena Hanie Horsley

6/3/2021 11:57:13 pm

My 5th Great Grandfather is Benjamin Franklin Hanie of the Pendleton District in South Carolina. The spelling of Hanie has changed some over time. I believe the connection may go back to Captain John Haynie. Anyway I am thankful for such a person that I would love to call Grandpa!!!

Reply

JARROD M EVANS

8/17/2021 03:22:34 am

I John Haynie is also my 9th great grandfather on my mother's side.

Reply

Cathy Frances Haynie Roe

12/2/2021 01:48:59 am

I am Cathy Frances Haynie Roe originally of Gulfport, MS. I am also the great grand-daughter of Drucilla L. Haynie & George Haynie of Blue Mountain, MS, the grand-daughter of Dr. James Francis Haynie & Gertrude Louise Cuevas Haynie of Gulfport, MS, and the daughter of Hugh Jones Haynie & Frances Anderson Haynie of Gulfport, MS. As a descendant of Capt. John Haynie, I welcome any contact & information regarding the Haynie family.

Reply

Gary Madison haynie

2/6/2022 09:26:07 pm

I want to thank all my distant cousins for there research. Sons of the confederate states

Reply

carrie B Rowe

7/6/2022 11:05:49 am

I am descendant of nicholas rowe .trying to connect James Rowe,born 1759 to nicholas.

Reply

JUDY HAYNIE LUFFEY

7/27/2022 03:25:38 pm

John Haynie is my (suspected) 8th Great Grandfather. I would love to compare notes on our family lines. Call or text 602-818-3643.

Reply

Theodore (Ted) Haynie

2/18/2023 12:34:30 pm

Capt John Haynie is my 7th great grandfather. His father, John "The Immigrant" Haynie, came to VA in 1621

Reply*Royalty

4/27/2023 10:23:37 pm

To here are other last names that are also connected to this bloodline

Reply*David B. Haynie

5/9/2023 01:51:03 pm

Very interesting. This comports pretty well with the family research my Dad, Gerald Demerest Haynie, had some up with, well before the days of the Internet. I had started adding some of that on WikiTree, but ran into another Haynie line, requested a merge, and never got that permission.

Specifically, he did trace our family line back to the two Johns, with the proper dates as well. Our branch of the family was still in Virginia... my Dad was born in Norfolk. He left for a job at Bell Labs in New Jersey. I lived in Jersey most of my life, but moved to Delaware about six years ago. My son Sean Kyle Haynie, strangely enough, is back in Virginia, in Chesapeake, a handful of miles from where my Dad and grandparents lived.

Reply

HANIESUE CHOCS

7/8/2023 01:23:38 am

Greaat reading

Reply*Suzanne Terry

10/10/2023 04:30:54 pm

I think I can prove descent from this line down to John Haynie, 1745 son of Stephen. Nancy Haynie, 1782, my connection is reported daughter of this John, 1745. I cannot find proof anywhere!

james christoffersen

11/14/2023 06:26:32 pm

I am a descendant through John>John>Richard>Maximillan>Maximillan>Jean Haynie, who married Burr Harris. Daughter Jane Harris married William Dawkins (Rev. War Captain); their daughter Chloe married Maj. Frederick Gray (Rev. War Captain, SC Militia). I'd be happy to connect & share what we have. Jim

Reply*Thomas Haynie

12/3/2023 08:29:58 pm

I am a direct descendent of Captain John Haynie. I have an entire tree, leading back all the way to Jamestown, before he met Elizabeth. I would love the opportunity to meet and share stories from our family line.
Trhaynie@yahoo.com.

Reply*Paul Haynie Davis

12/12/2023 01:20:25 pm

My great grand father was another John Haynie. Likewise, he owned 5,000 river bottom land in Mills County, Iowa. He was county sheriff and county supervisor. His family carried on the tradition the legal profession. Several of my cousins and my daughter are attorneys, I once tempted membership in the Jamestown Society but I had several illiterate ancestors who left no written records.

Reply*Sandra Blue Brinkley Baldwin

3/18/2024 03:08:06 pm

Good evening my relatives of Captain John Haynie... I also a direct descendant of Captain John Haynie. I think we should plan a reunion of the descendants of Captain John Haynie. Or if there already is one I would like to know. Thank you from Kentucky, Sandra

Reply