He arrived in Virginia in 1621 on the ship Margaret and John.^[1]

He is listed on the 1624/25 muster with his wife Elizabeth, who arrived on the Abigaile in 1622.^[2] John's partner, Nicholas Rowe, and his wife also lived there. They had two servants and ample provisions for the household.^[3]

On 12 Dec 1627, he acquired by lease 150 acres of land at Buck Roe within the precincts of Elizabeth City, near Point Comfort.^{[4][5]}

He died after 12 Dec 1627, the date of the land acquisition.

Research Notes

Most Haynie researchers agree that the Haynie family can be formally traced to Capt. John Haynie and, some believe that Capt. John was the progenitor of the Haynie Family in America. However, there is evidence that supports the belief that the Haynie family was established in America by John Hayney who was born in England in about 1594. John Hayney came to the American Colonies on the ship "Margett and John" in 1621.¹ He gave his age as 27 which would place his birth date about 1594. He appears in the referenced Index again with a date of 1624, and is first mentioned in Virginia land records in 1632.

William Hampton, Planter, 50 A. At Buck Doe within the precincts of Elizabeth City, 12 March 1632. Abutting on a Cr. Parting same from land of James Bonal, Frenchman, Sly. towards the land of John Hayney, Planter, and Ely, upon Cr. Parting same from Point Comfort Island. Which 50 A. Was leased by Francis West 10 Dec. 1627.

John Hayney married Elizabeth Hayney who was born about 1581 and came to the Virginia colony on the ship "Abigail" in 1622; the ship record did not give her age. However, in a Northumberland County Court in April 1635, Elizabeth proved her age to be 54 which would make her some 13 years older than her husband.

John and Elizabeth were probably married soon after her arrival in Virginia, or about 1622-23. This would allow for the birth of a son, also named John, in about 1624 which is believed to be Capt. John Haynie. A search of the records at the Virginia State Library found very few records covering the period 1621-1650 and no record was found of the marriage of John Hayney or the birth of Capt. John Haynie.

First wife's name was Margaret Brouche - They had 4 children together.

Some Haynie researchers believe that Capt. John Haynie was born in England and that he came to America in about 1650 and there are two references that are consistently used to support this belief. The first is in the Index of Immigrants and Naturalizations. Some believe that this reference proves that John Haynie immigrated to America in 1650, when actually the reference states that "he was an original grantee for 950 acres on 20 January 1650." The second reference used is in a 1991 Supplement to the same Index, which makes reference to a John Haynie as "a founder of a colonial family living in Virginia in 1650." Neither reference gives a date of immigration, or the name of a ship, or a port of arrival. In July of 1993, the records at the Virginia State Library in Richmond were searched for early records on Capt. John Haynie. The earliest record found was when Capt. John Haynie and others signed an oath of allegiance to the Commonwealth of England on 13 April 1652. This record also leads many to believe that Capt. John Haynie and the other signers of the oath had just arrived in the colonies, however, this is not proof. Research shows that this was a troubling time for England because she was without "King or House of Lords" and was primarily interested in ensuring the loyalty of the colonists. As an example, take the case of Nicholas Morris who also signed the oath to the Commonwealth of England on 13 April 1652. The evidence indicates that the Nicholas Morris family moved to Northumberland County, Virginia from Maryland in about 1650. The Nicholas Morris family was another prominent Virginia family and a large land owner. The Morris and Haynie families are connected through the marriage of Jane Morris, daughter of Nicholas, to Capt. John Haynie.

After considering all of the available records, it is believed that Capt. John Haynie was actually born in Virginia, and that his father was John Hayney who immigrated to Virginia in 1621.

NOTE: JOHN & ELIZABETH HAYNEY HAVE NOT BEEN PROVEN TO BE THE PARENTS OF CAPTAIN JOHN HAYNIE, I (1624-1697); HOWEVER, THIS LINK HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED HERE TO SHOW THAT THERE WERE "HAYNIES" IN VIRGINIA PRIOR TO THE EMERGENCE OF CAPTAIN JOHN HAYNIE, I, IN 1650.

 THE READER MAY CHOOSE TO INCLUDE OR IGNORE THIS SET OF PARENTS IN THE LINEAGE OF HAYNIES.

SRC1:A HAYNIE LINE 1624-1990, W. PRESTON HAYNIE, HEATHSVILLE, VA, 1989.

JOHN & ELIZABETH HAYNEY ARE BELIEVED BY SOME TO BE THE PARENTS OF CAPTAIN JOHN HAYNIE, I (BORN: 1624,DIED: 1697) & MARRIED TO JANE MORRIS.

IF SO, CAPT. JOHN HAYNIE, I, MAY HAVE BEEN BORN IN YORK CO, VA.

THIS FIRST JOHN HAYNEY ARRIVED ON "MARGETT AND JOHN" IN 1621; HIS AGE IS GIVEN AS 27 (WOULD HAVE BEEN BORN ABOUT 1594).

<P> ELIZABETH HAYNEY THE PROPOSED WIFE OF JOHN HAYNEY IS LISTED AS ARRIVING ON THE "ABIGAIL" IN 1622; HER AGE IS NOT GIVEN. HOWEVER, IN VIRGINIA RECORDS IN 1635, HER AGE WAS 54, WHICH MEANS THAT SHE WOULD HAVE BEEN BORN ABOUT 1581.

<P> W. PRESTON HAYNIE IS NOT A SUPPORTER OF THE THEORY THAT THEY ARE THE PARENTS OF CAPT. JOHN HAYNIE, I. ONE REASON IS THE AGE FACTOR;

ACCORDING TO WHAT IS KNOWN, ELIZABETH APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN 13 YEARS

OLDERTHAN JOHN

(IT WASN'T COMMON PRACTICE IN THOSE DAYS FOR THE WOMAN TO BE THAT MUCH OLDER THAN HER HUSBAND). ALSO IF ELIZABETH WAS CAPT. JOHN'S MOTHER, SHE WOULD HAVE BEEN 43 YEARS OLD AT THE TIME OF HIS BIRTH, POSSIBLE, BUT NOT PROBABLE.
