Research Notes

Samuel married on June 18, 1697 in All Hallows Parish, Anne Arundel County, Maryland, as his 1st or 2nd (?), to Elizabeth Ijams or Iiams. (?) or to Elizabeth Clark.

Therefore, if the 1697 marriage was to Elizabeth Ijams, AND this was his 2nd, then Elizabeth Clark may have been deceased by the date of his 2nd marriage, June 18, 1697. (?) However, there is no evidence to this.

Note: It is unclear who married to Samuel in 1697 and which wife was the mother of the children. The Queen Anne's Parish Record, as transcribed for the USGenWeb Archives, shows only that his wife was "Elizabeth ??"^[1]

One contributor states that Elizabeth Iiams and Elizabeth Clark were actually the same person since Elizabeth was previously married to a man named Clark. No documentation supporting this contention has been provided, but further research may clarify this.

"SAMUEL Duvall married Elizabeth Clark, in 1687..."^[2]

Iiams-16 and Iiams-68 appear to represent the same person because: Same parents, same husband named in the bio section, but not in the data section. Birth/death dates are not exact on either profile uncertain.
