The burial record cited above under sources does not seem relevant to the Elizabeth (Williams) Daniel of the present profile. The burial date is two months before the recorded death date, and the burial is in Cheshire, England although her death is reported in Virginia.

I seriously doubt that Elizabeth, born 1623, was the daughter of Anne Weston (born 1574).

In searching for Williams in Virginia, I find Henry Williams (arrived 1613) and his wife Susan (arrived 1618) with Williams children born in 1632 and 1635 in "Northampton County" (according to their profiles). Their WikiTree profiles show a marriage (in Virginia) in 1624.... by 1624 is more likely. But Elizabeth is listed in the January 1624/5. Still, it may be more fruitful to search for an Elizabeth daughter of Henry & Susanna than for a daughter of John and Anne born in Virginia to a woman nearly 50 years old.

See Henry Williams \(1600-bef.1661\) & Susan \(Andrews\) Williams \(aft.1600-bef.1638\) & muster results \(Williams search\).

The date of birth is 1623 and date of marriage is 1633 very unlikely Elizabeth was married at 10 years old. Are there any original, verifiable sources for information on Elizabeth?

When English colonists first arrived in the area in the early 1600s, the Virginia Eastern Shore region was governed by Debedeavon (aka "The Laughing King"), paramount chief of the Accawmacke clans who numbered around 2000 at the time. The former name of the county was Accomac Shire, one of the original shires of Virginia. In 1642, the name was changed to Northampton County by the English, to eliminate "heathen" names in the New World. (In England, "shires" and "counties" were the same thing). In 1663, Northampton County was split into two counties that still exist today. The northern two thirds took the original Accomac name, while the southern third remained as Northampton.
